LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES, July 22, 1882.
For the Middle Atlantic States cloudy weather, with light local rains, variable winds, mostly northerly, nearly stationary temperature and pressure.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. Dr. Poulson goes to Baltimore to preach to-morrow for Rev. L.
H. Pearce, former pastor of the M. E. Church here, absent in Tennessee with his invalid wife, who is improving in health. Rev. E.
H. Cumpston will occupy Dr. Poulson's pulpit to-morrow morning and night.

Rev. M. C. Thiving, of Washington, editor of the "Baptist Nation," and Rev. Mr.
Flippo will exchange pulpits to-morrow morning. Dr. Thiving in the morning will preach in the Baptist Church in the morning and in the evening. Dr. Thiving is an able and scholarly divine, and those who attend the Baptist Church in the morning may expect to hear a short, but excellent and eloquent sermon. Mr. Flippo will occupy his pulpit at night. Subject: "The effect of the first sermon after Pentecost."

A REBELLIOUS SAILOR.—Chas. H. Robinson, a colored sailor on the schooner Annie E. Cramer, Capt. Charles A. Falkenberg, which arrived here a day or two ago with guano for Messrs. Wm. A. Smoot & Co., from New York, left the vessel yesterday evening without permission and did not return until after ten o'clock. When Robinson arrived on board the schooner last night he was asked by the mate, Wm. Falkenberg, what he left the schooner for without permission. He replied that he did not know there was anything to do on the vessel, and after using some insulting language, struck the mate several times over the head with an iron belaying pin, inflicting severe but not serious wounds. The mate rallied quickly and knocked the negro down, cutting and bruising his face. As soon as Robinson got away from the mate he jumped overboard, where he was captured by a couple of sailors belonging to the schooner Hoyt, from Baltimore, lying near by, who turned him over to the police officer at the station house. The Captain and mate of the Cramer were both arrested, charged by Robinson with a murderous assault upon him, but were subsequently released for their appearance this morning. Dr. T.
Marshall Jones dressed the wounds of mate Falkenberg, two severe cuts on the head, at the station house.

This morning the parties were before the Mayor. Mr. Edmund Burke represented Capt. Falkenberg and his mate. The evidence all showed that the negro Robinson made the attack without any provocation upon the mate, and that the Captain took no hand in the matter. At the conclusion of the examination the Mayor discharged the Captain and mate, and committed the rebellious sailor to jail until the vessel was ready to sail. The mate refused to swear out a warrant charging Robinson with assault with intent to kill because, he stated, it would be impossible for him and the other members of the crew of the vessel to get here at the trial to testify.

A WASHINGTON COLORED CHURCH DEAC-ON IN TROUBLE.—Benjamin Jones, a large black negro of the pious stripe, was arrested in this city about 12 o'clock to-day for attempting the ruin of a little colored girl.
Upon being taken before the Mayor, Jones stated that he lived in Washington, and that he came here this morning to make arrangements for a religious excursion to Culpeper, bringing the little girl, who lived at his house, being a relation of his wife, with him; that upon arriving here he started to find an old friend of his named Bettie Mason, and that by accident he got into a house of ill fame. The little girl stated that her name was Willie Parker, and that her mother lived in Warrenton, Va., but that she lived in Washington with her aunt, Jones' wife; that Jones invited her to come to Alexandria with him, and that upon arriving here he insisted upon her taking something to drink, but that she refused; that he induced her to go to a house on north Fairfax street, where he made indecent proposals to her. Jones being permitted to make another statement on oath, first admitted his guilt and then denied the charge of the girl. Georgia Strong, colored, and several other witnesses testified to the shameful conduct of the man. In default of the payment of a fine of $15 Jones was committed to jail subject to the chain gang.

THE A. L. I. EXCURSION.—The first complimentary excursion of the Alexandria Light Infantry to Marshall Hall last night was one of the most enjoyable that has left this city this season. A large number of the friends of the company attended, and at Marshall Hall dancing was commenced, to the music of a section of the Marine Band, and continued till 12 o'clock, when the company re-embarked on the steamer Arrow-smith and arrived at Alexandria at 1 o'clock this morning. The management of the excursion was splendid, and the committee having it in charge, Lieut. George S. Smith and Private J. M. Hill, and the officers of the command, Capt. Geo. McBurney, jr., and Lieutenants F. F. Marbury and Samuel L. Monroe, received much praise for their untiring efforts to make all have a pleasant time. Among those present were Lieuts.
P. J. Duffey and George Thomas, of the Washington Light Infantry; Private Johnstone, of the National Rifles; Lieut. Short, of the Union Veteran Corps; Thos. B. Kalbfus, of the Washington Sunday Herald.

Alexandria was well represented by her prominent citizens, among them being many members of the city government.

MERCER SLAUGHTER, esq., the very efficient Assistant General Passenger Agent of the Virginia Midland Railway, has been appointed General Passenger Agent of the Richmond and Danville system of roads, with headquarters at Richmond, and will enter upon the discharge of the duties of his new position on the 1st of August. The appointment of Mr. Slaughter to this very responsible office does not sever his connection with the Virginia Midland road, which is included in the Danville system.

Captain FRANCIS T. HAWKS, at present holding the position of General Freight Agent, will become both General Freight and Passenger Agent of the Virginia Midland road, and will doubtless fill this new position with the zeal and fidelity characteristic of the man.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

The County Court and the Corporation Court will both be in session Monday next.

The funeral of Mrs. Ann Witbeck, whose death was announced yesterday, took place this afternoon.

An important meeting of the directors of the Fair Association is to be held on Tuesday evening next at the City Treasurer's office at 4 o'clock.

Watermelons sold in the market this morning at 25c apiece. Peaches sold at 40c per peck, tomatoes 40c per peck and cylinders 12c per dozen. Prices for all other articles were unchanged from last Saturday's quotations.

It is reported on the street to-day that the Court of Appeals of the State, sitting at Wytville, has refused to grant a new trial in the 10-40 coupon case, in which a mandamus was granted by the Circuit Court of Richmond compelling the Treasurer to receive the 10-40 coupons for taxes, &c.

The dwelling on the North side of Cameron street, near the corner of Fairfax, including the life estate of Isabella Lawson in the same, was bid in this morning by Mr. John J. Jamieson, for others, for $1,115—Messrs.
Green and Wise auctioneers. The property on the southeast corner of St. Asaph street, advised for sale to-day by Messrs. Lucas & Co., auc-tioneers, was not offered.

Monday afternoon, at 3:45 p. m. there will be another game of base ball between the National Stars and the Association Nine on the same grounds on which yesterday's game was played. The Alexandria nine is acknowledged to be the strongest club ever organized here, and the playing of Underwood and Beach yesterday won much applause.

The County Court of Fairfax has made an order changing the line dividing Falls Church and Mt. Vernon districts in said county so as to include in Mt. Vernon district that part of Falls Church district lying south of the line beginning at Jones' Point and running with the line of Alexandria and Fairfax county to the Va. Midland Railway, thence with the railroad to its entrance into Mt. Vernon district.

CHEAP MUSIC.—Mr. John H. Parrott says he has too much sheet music for his own use, and will divide with his customers at very low figures; that is he will give you one Dollar's worth for 20 cents. jy22-31.

What gives a healthy appetite, an increased digestion, strength to the muscles,

Robert Dinwiddie, Governor of Virginia, 1752-'58.
I am engaged in preparing for publication by the Virginia Historical Society the important historical manuscript, recently presented to the Society by its vice-president, W.
W. Corcoran, Esq., and known to the public as the "Dinwiddie Papers." Much additional original material bearing on the period is in the cabinet of the Society. The proposed publication will make a handsome volume of probably 500 pages, and will be uniform in size and execution with the choice volume of the Spotswood Letters already issued.
It is desired to accompany it in like manner with a biographical sketch of Governor Dinwiddie and with his engraved portrait, arms, &c. Unfortunately I have no knowledge that a portrait of him exists. There are representatives of the name Dinwiddie in Virginia and other States of the Union, who are believed to be of the lineage of Governor Dinwiddie. It is desired that such descent should be stated in the proposed memoir. Any information as to the residence of Governor Dinwiddie in Virginia, any reference to published works in which he is mentioned, however slightly, or any address to which applications may be made regarding his portrait, will be most thankfully received.

The loan also of any letter written by him, or manuscript in which he is mentioned, if such there be in the possession of the reader is solicited.

Corresponding Secretary and Librarian Virginia Historical Society,
